JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON ON GRANT.

Andy has recently given pretty emphatic expression of his views with regard to "the man at the other end of the avenue." He does not hesitate to show in what utter contempt he holds him and his policy:

"I know Grant thoroughly," said he. "I had ample opportunity to study him when I was President, and I am convinced he is the greatest farce that was ever thrust upon a people. Why, the little fellow—excuse me for using the expression, but I can't help pitying him—the little fellow has nothing in him. He hasn't a single idea. He has no policy, no conception of what the country requires. He don't understand the philosophy of a single great question, and is completely lost in trying to understand his situation. He is mendacious, cunning and treacherous. He lied to me flagrantly, by —, and I convicted him by my whole Cabinet; but that even would have been tolerable were it the only instance, but it was not. He lied on many other occasions. I tell you, sir, Grant is nothing more than a bundle of petty spites, jealousies and resentments. And yet they say Grant is a second Washington. Only think of it, when you compare him with Washington or Jefferson where is he? Why he is so small you must put your finger on him. He, a little upstart, a coward, physically and intellectually, to be compared to Washington! Why, it makes me laugh. I have more pity for the man than contempt, for I have no spite against him. * * * Grant has nothing, Physically and mentally and morally he is a nonentity. Why, sir, his soul is so small that you could put it within the periphery of a hazzel-nut shell and it might float about for a thousand years without knocking against the walls of the shell. * * * He sits there with his Cabinet. One member has bought him a house in Philadelphia, another has given him $65 000, an other has given him a carriage, and so on. It is degrading to the office of President of the United States to have such a man there. They talk about his generalship. Well, he was a mere incident of the war. Men and arms were supplied in abundance, and his forces were so massive that he simply crushed out the rebellion. * * * * Grant is ruled by a miserable set of hucksters and bondholders. He is in their hands completely, and therefore we are in danger.—The country is in peril for the boldholders are striving to rule the government. The people ought to be made to understand this condition. The people need to be indoctrinated with the truth, and you, gentlemen of the press can do it. * * * * * Why, Ben. Butler had a wonderfully correct idea of Grant. He used to come to see me much at one time and expressed the profoundest contempt for Grant. His estimate of Grant was about the same as my own. He thought Grant could be made to do anything, that he could be made a complete tool and that if he desired he could have himself invited to Grant's house. It happened precisely so, afterward, just as Butler boasted. You remember Butler was invited to Grant's house, and it was brought about by Butler himself. Butler understands Grant thoroughly. I have no hesitation in declaring that Grant is a mean, avaricious, cunning, spiteful man—a complete bundle of petty jealousies, spites and lies. He has no courage. I made him fairly quail before my glance at that Cabinet meeting when I asked him about that famous correspondence concerning Stanton. I asked him question after question, and he quailed. When I finished he stood up, took his hat in his hand, and in a mean, sneaking way, said "Gentlemen, have you any more questions to ask?" and slunk out of the room. I convicted him of lying and cowardice them.

Such is the gist of a conversation between the ex President and a correspondent of the Herald. Whether correctly reported or not, we have no doubt that such is Andy's opinion of the Military Accident, and he has a particularly spicy way of making it known.

With regard to Tennessee, he thinks Senter will be elected, and considers Brownlow's coming round as owing to his desire to be on the winning side.

"You notice," said he, "that he opposes further proscription. He does this not from principle, but from policy. It is precisely the same way in Virginia, and other Southern States. I tell you, sir, if this country is to be kept from despotism, anarchy or imperialism, the nucleus has to come from the South, when restored. It will be small at first, but mark me, sir, it will come that way. Grant would see this if he had an idea in his head, but he has not."

Mr. Johnson made some serious mistakes when he was in the Presidential chair, but he is about right this time.—Metropolitan Record.

MURDERER PURSUED BY HIS VICTIM'S GHOST.

The New Orleans Picayune says: There are few cases of mania exhibiting such peculiar features as that of a Mr. Spencer, living on Louisa street, in this city. Some years ago he engaged in a difficulty with a man named Hunt, whom he killed. They had been friends from their boyhood, and up to the day of the fatal affray had never felt for each other aught but friendship and kindness. It is said of them, too, that they had mutually shared many peril's, and bonds of sympathy linked them by stronger ties than usually cements ordinary friends. But a trifling dispute occurred, and in a moment of intemperate passion the fatal thrust was given, and his old friend lay dead at his feet. His horror at the homicide threw him into a fever, of which he came near dying. For months he hovered on the verge of the grave, and, when he at last recovered, it was with the impression that the ghost of his friend, clad in grave clothes, was ever at his side. His mind, rational upon every other subject, clings to his delusion, and no persuasion or reason can remove the impression or cure him of the mania. It goes with him to his business, which he conducts with the same sagacity and skill that he ever did. It sits with him in his family circle; is by his side in the street, and lies down with him when he goes to bed at night. He often converses with it, and imagines that he receives replies to his questionings. He says for years the ghost maintained toward him a stern apect, refusing all conciliation, but of late years it has assumed toward him a more friendly demeanor. He believes it will go with him through life, as a penance for his crime.—The law acquitted him, but this is the judgment of Heaven.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Assets $10,462,531,75.
Amount of Income 6,227,071.
SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,18.
THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.
Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Prompt-ness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Being situated in the north-western part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CATES, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1869.

THE TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS.

We would again call the attention of the tax paying community to the approaching township elections, and urge upon them the importance of taking steps to fill the offices in their townships with men of prudence and judgment. Already are our people burdened with taxation—a taxation beyond anything they have ever been called on to bear in the past. So heavy is the burden that many are compelled to forego, even, many of the necessaries of life, in order to save from the Sheriff's hammer the little remnant that the wreck of the times has left them. And yet, when these township Courts are elected and organized, they will have the power, under existing law, to lay taxes for various purposes, and should the offices be placed in the hands of illiterate, irresponsible men, who, have little or no property interest to be protected, they will recklessly add to the burdens that are already almost too intolerable to be borne.

We repeat what we have said heretofore, the selection of candidates for these town ship offices should not be made in reference to party affiliation, but with regard to fitness and fitness only, for the offices to be filled. These officers will not only have it in their power to increase the burdens of the people in regard to taxation, but they will constitute the tribunal for the adjustment of a large portion of the local difficulties that may arise among the people, and, therefore, they should be men of moderation, having feelings and interests in common with those whose welfare and peace will, to so great an extent, be placed in their hands.

The idea of making these offices rewards for partizan efforts in political campaigns ought to be discarded. To make them such would instill into the organization, at the start, an element of partiality that would go far to impair their power of effecting good, and have a tendency to make them instruments of discord and oppression within their jurisdictions.

Then let the people of the various townships begin in time—and the time now is short—to look about them and consult in regard to the filling the township offices with men qualified for the important and responsible duties they involve.

QUERIES.

Why didn't Joe Holden ride at the head of the procession yesterday in the vehicle that his colored friends went to the expense of procuring for him?

Why didn't little Charley Horner, Deputy Sheriff Buck and Chief of Police Martin, appear as Marshals as per published programme?

Why did "our beloved Governor," Frank Dewese, Artistic Josh (Andrews,) U. S. Marshal Carrow, Register Lafin, the gay and festive Josephs, the Supreme Court and a number of other foreign and domestic evils, dodge into Tucker Hall as if they were ashamed or thought themselves too good to parade the streets with a host of negroes?

Why, didn't all of the "truly loil," the reconstructed and perfectly subjugated come forward and "join with sweet accord" the "heroes of Port Hudson" in celebrating the national holiday of the "best government the world ever saw" and to which they are loud mouthed in their profession of love, loyalty and devotion.

Why did all of the Radicals in this place show such a decided repugnance towards affiliating with the Ashantee and Congo on Independence day, when but a few months ago (previous to the last campaign) they associated with them on the most familiar terms, made speeches with them, drank with them, appeared in procession with them and, for aught we know, slept with them.

The answer to the above questions can be found in the simple fact that it will be over a year before any election of importance takes place in this State, and before that time approaches measures can be easily taken to conciliate the gullable Africans. We are, however, glad to state that a few negroes had the self respect to refuse to join in the ceremonies, saying that "if white men, whom they elected to office, thought themselves too good to be seen with them, they were too good to be made tools of."

THE MEETING AT FRANLINTON.

As will be seen by the proceedings of the Conservative Democratic meeting at Louisburg on Saturday, published in another column, our friends in Franklin have named Monday next, 12th inst., as the day for the meeting of delegates from the two counties, at Franklinton, to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Senate, caused by the death of Mr. Wynne. We hope our friends, who were appointed as delegates from this county, will not fail to attend the Convention at Franklinton, and assist by their counsels in the selection of a candidate acceptable to the Conservative Democratic party of the District, and one who may be relied on to oppose the present extravagant and reckless administration of our State government. Delegates can take the morning train for Franklinton and return by the afternoon train, having ample time for the business of the Convention.

PEN AND INK SKETCHES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, AS IT HAS BEEN.

DEDICATED TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE, AND TO THE ALUMNI OF THE UNIVERSITY.

NO. 15.

THE APPROPRIATIONS.

Gov. Swain never liked to ask for help. He did so now with extreme reluctance.—He once before in its history had the College received such aid from the State. In 1791, $10,000 had been loaned it, and this sum was afterwards converted into a gift,—the $6,000, now asked for at an interval of considerably more than half a century, would make the sum of all that the State has ever given its University $16,000. It would be instructive and suggestive to ask, what the Universities of South Carolina and Virginia have cost their respective States, and how much, annually, has been bestowed on them. Ours has received but $17,000 in the course of 74 years, and meanwhile has earned and invested in buildings for the State $100,000, besides educating free, hundreds of her sons. Such facts cannot be repeated too often.

To show how little, out of a certain circle, has really been known of the University and its doings, when the fact of its beneficiary system was stated in the House of Commons, one of the members, an old man rose and questioned it, saying that he had never heard of it. He was answered by another member, a graduate, who very gracefully and handsomely vouched for the fact, he, himself, having received his education as a gift from the University.

The $7,000 was granted cordially, and it was said, the Governor might have had $20,000 if he had asked for it. But he was not one to tax the generosity of the State, and he never wanted the people of North Carolina to feel that their University was a burden upon them. It had always been independent under his management and he only hoped that he might live to see it again launched on a prosperous career. That day, alas! he never saw.

BREAKING UP.

In March, 1867, the chair of Mathematics and Astronomy suddenly became vacant. The oldest member of the Faculty, and who had been longer connected with the College than any other man since its foundation, was gathered up as a shock of corn fully ripe. Dr. Phillips fell dead on the rostrum of the Chapel at morning prayers, with his recitation room key, and Pierce's Plane and Solid Geometry in his hand.

In 1865 Prof. Hepburn, who filled the chair of Logic, Rhetoric and Metaphysics, had obtained a furlough from the Trustees that he might spend a year of study in Europe. In 1866 he had returned. In the spring of 1867 he tendered his resignation, having come to the conclusion that the University could not, without a thorough re organization, regain its lost footing with the public. Besides, the income that it was giving would not support his family. With the same views Prof. Martin, of the Department of Chemistry, also resigned his chair in the course of that summer. Both these young men were a severe loss. They would have given character and reputation to any institution with which they were connected.

In 1866 Mr. Pool, adjunct Professor of Mathematics had resigned to take that office in the Internal Revenue Bureau which he yet holds.

THE RESIGNATIONS OF ALL.

There now remained only the President and four Professors, Dr. Hubbard, Profs. Fetter, Phillips and Smith. (Judge Battle still continuing his Law School.) These gentlemen feeling that with a College numbering less than 100 students, the public was holding them responsible, and feeling that they had done all that could be required and more, and willing that new men and measures should now be tried on an Institution to which they had devoted the best years of their lives, resigned in a body in the fall of '67. These resignations were accepted by the Trustees at their meeting in November.

POPULAR IDEAS.

It cannot be denied that at the close of the war, all our Literary Institutions took more or less of a Political, or at any rate, a Sectional complexion. The election of Gen Lee to the Presidency of Washington College, had the effect to draw thither such an overwhelming crowd of students, that it seemed to become necessary to the existence and prosperity of all our Colleges that they should take on a warm Southern tone, and identify themselves if possible, more than ever with the Lost Cause, by associating with them those who had been prominent in our army. It had very soon begun to be openly said, that all that Chapel Hill needed was to have Gen. Jo. Johnston, or some other one of our Southern heroes placed at its head. People did not seem to care whether the man was a scholar or not, so that he had fought gallantly on our side. Gov. Swain resisted all such quasi-military views, as he had resisted the plan of introducing military features in the College course during the war. Nevertheless it was certainly the popular idea of the day. Gov. Swain was assailed by a certain Press as an old fogy, a fossil, who with his colleagues should be forced to give way to more wide awake and truly Southern patriotic men. After four years of war, it seemed too tame a proceeding to put on the scholar's simple garb and return quietly to the old ways, the old studies, the old moderation. The old Professors were voted slow—the old methods, behind the age.—People forgot that it takes time to grow an efficient, experienced and able College officer. A great and successful working Institution is as much the work of years as the Literature of a country. We cannot have a Southern Literature merely by resolving on it, and starting Magazines and Reviews, and we cannot make a living College merely by electing new Professors and buying new apparatus.

THE LANDSCRIP.

The influences that were agitating men's minds, and weakening the hold of the Faculty on public favor, might have been overcome by time and its inevitable reactions, and especially by the judicious intermingling among them of new elements—new officers and fresh attractions. This the poverty of the Institution prevented.

When the Landscrip donation from Congress, for the establishment of an Agricultural College in every State in the Union, was announced, Gov. Swain, by unwearied exertion, and mainly by his own personal influence among the politicians at Washington City, procured the grant for North Carolina. I believe she is the only Southern State so favored, unless, perhaps, Georgia be added. Gov. Swain, having secured it for the State, was further instrumental in influencing the State Representatives to hand it over to the University, that the new Agricultural College might be connected with it, using one of its ample Buildings, and its lands, and thus going at once into successful operation. With this great addition to its advantages and attractions, the Trustees felt assured that the University would revive.

THE RE-ELECTIONS.

The Trustees were very unwilling that the doors of the University should be closed for even so short an interval, while they were maturing plans for a reorganization. They foresaw the peril, and the extreme difficulty in setting such machinery in motion again, if once stopped. They, therefore, while accepting the resignation of the Faculty, formally requested them to continue the College exercises for another session, and keep the doors open till the new measures could be resolved upon. It was a delicate thing to ask of men so circumstanced, and I know that Gov. Swain, for one, hesitated, saying, at the same time, that he would go as far as any man to serve the interest of the University. However, the esprit du corps prevailed, and the Faculty remained as requested, till the Commencement of June, 1868, when the Trustees handsomely and unanimously re-elected them all to their several Departments, at the same time making provision to enlarge the corps by such additions as were called for, and by the election of Professors in the new Agricultural school.

THE CLOSE OF A LONG DAY.

All these plans and hopes, however, were doomed to be frustrated by the issue of the State elections in May of that year, by which a new Constitution was adopted, and new State officers came in with new party views and prejudices, thus throwing the State Institutions into entirely new hands. One of the first acts of the new Government was the summary closing of the University doors by a company of negro troops, and the consequent displacement of all the College authorities. A severer blow to the cause of Education was never dealt, and with all respect for the purity of their motives who thus acted, and their ability to judge in such matters, I may anticipate the verdict of a very few years, and add, that a greater blunder was never committed.

AS TO POLITICS

It was a significant indication of the irritability of the times that while one party had been clamoring for the removal of the Faculty, on the ground that they were traitors to the South, the other party was also impatient of them, and when it had accomplished their ejection, we had certain other presses rejoicing over the downfall of disloyal rebels, the breaking up of the old rookery and the letting in of light on the dark corners of an effete aristocracy. It was also a significant indication of the even tenor of the way the Faculty had held as to politics, that the extremists of both sides thus repudiated them.

We hear a great deal said these days about the present odious aspects of party, and especially its unprecedented invasion of Literary ground, hitherto held sacred from such interference. We need to be reminded, every now and then, that human nature is the same in all ages and that there is nothing new. I have before me now a letter to "the Honorable the President of the Board of Trustees, of the University of North Carolina," dated Oct. 24, 1812, and written by the Rev. James Hall, D. D., of Iredell county. His spirit had been stirred within him at the intrusion of politics in the domain of letters. One of his co presbyters had been chosen a member of the Board, the only Democrat known in the two presbyteries of the State, which consist of more than thirty members, and "whose political principles as was acknowledged to me by a member of the Board, designate the object of choice." Meanwhile it seems that Dr. Hall and others who bore the burden and heat of the Revolutionary day, were proscribed as "Rebel Priests," "for which, see a late number of the Raleigh Register,"—and "must sustain the above and other most odious epithets." Then follow reflections such as we are familiar with at this very time, concerning party principles, literary institutions &c., &c., ending thus. "A query if christendom can produce such an example as has and may be found in the University of North Carolina."

The letter however was written for the purpose of thanking the Board for the honorary degree of D. D., lately conferred on the writer, and also announces that he had a considerable number of books which he intended to present to the College. So that there was evidently at bottom, in spite of politics, respect and good will on both sides.

GOV. SWAIN'S HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS.

This letter is one of very many collected by Gov. Swain to illustrate the history of the State and University. A rich and invaluable storehouse of material for the future Historian. It is not among the least of the debts which North Carolina owes to Gov. Swain that he was for many years so indefatigable in collecting such material.

His wide acquaintance throughout the Union, his large correspondence, and the general esteem felt for him by all classes and parties, gave him unusual facilities for gathering information. He was himself a storehouse of facts and anecdotes, and genealogical and traditional lore, such as no other man's memory in the State could compass. He loved such investigations, and was never happier than when he received a communication from some like-minded friend, throwing fresh light on some obscure corner of inquiry. Losing him, we lost the key to his vast collection of papers, and the only hand competent to fuse and present them to the world in a competent form. Let who will take up his mantle and endeavor to carry out his designs, the name of DAVID L. SWAIN must ever remain first on the list of those who loved and honored North Carolina, and who, more than any other man of his day, keeping himself aloof from State politics, had fostered State pride, and laid the foundation for building up our State history.

FINALLY.

Gov. Swain's death occurring when it did, gave a dramatic and tragical interest to the close of his connection with the University and to the close of the fifth Act of the University's career. That there should now be an interlude of a Farce seems proper. But that the curtain will rise again on fairer scenes, new actors, and a prouder story for Chapel Hill, no one who loves our State is willing to doubt. As was well said by the orator at the late meeting of the Board, to her Alumni must the University look now for aid and restoration. To her Alumni, wherever they may be reached, I have addressed these desultory papers, and to the right feeling of every honest man in the State, in the hope of re-kindling their attachment and re awakening their interest in a spot once dear, and hallowed by a thousand tender and patriotic associations.

MASSACHUSETTS PROHIBITORY LAW.—The Massachusetts State constables are attempting to enforce the new prohibitory liquor law throughout the State, and trouble is still feared in some of the larger places.—The penalties under the law are heavy; for a single sale it is $10 fine and from twenty to thirty days' imprisonment; for a second violation $20 and from thirty to sixty days' imprisonment, and for any subsequent violation $50 and from three to six months' imprisonment, with an extra month to each case when the fine is not paid. The keeping with intent to sell is punished by $10 fine and twenty days' imprisonment. The seller is liable for all damage done by the buyer and drinker, while drunk, and any person arrested for drunkenness can escape prosecution by appearing as a witness against the man of whom he purchased his liquor. These are only a few of the more important provisions.

Batlioz, said, the day before his death, that his career both as composer and critic had been a failure.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

LOUISBURG, N. C., July 3, 1869.

Pursuant to notice previously given, a large number of the Conservatives and Democrats of this county, assembled in Convention, to-day in the Court House at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of consulting together, as to the propriety of nominating a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Senate occasioned by the death of the late R. L. Wynne, Esq.

The meeting was called to order by Jones Fuller, Esq., who nominated M. Lankford, Esq., for chairman. George S. Baker, Esq., was requested to act as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was then explained by Capt. J. J Davis. In the course of his remarks he dealt the extravagances and enormities of the party in power, some severe blows. He adverted to the fact that during the canvass for the Constitution in the Spring of 1868, that the Radical speakers, told the people that the State and County tax, combined was by that instrument limited to two dollars on three hundred dollars worth of property, and a like sum on each poll, and pointed to the tax lists, which have but recently been made out by the Commissioners of this county, which demands nearly three times the constitutional limit on property, and two dollars and seventy cents on the poll, as an evidence of the insincerity of their professions, and utter disregard of their moral obligations.

Mr. Jones Fuller next addressed the meeting in a speech of some length, which was well conceived and forcibly delivered.

On motion the chairman was requested to appoint five delegates from each Township, to meet the delegates appointed by the Wake Convention, at Franklinton, and Monday July 12th was designated as the day for said meeting.

The Chairman appointed the delegates as follows:

Hayesville Township—B W Wilson, Dr. W H Davis, M Person, D D Overton, George Jones and T. J. Blacknall.

Sandy Creek Township—R A Speed, John E Thomas, J B Littlejohn, Dr P S Foster, A B Person and G H Gupton.

Gold Mine Township—Joshua Perry, Arch Taylor, W F Collins, A D Williams and R Pearce.

Cedar Rock Township—J J Pearce, W K Davis, Wm Coppedge, Jr., Dr W C Lankford and S M Bobbitt.

Louisburg Township—C M Cooke, W H Furgerson, O L Ellis, Jones Fuller, N M Hawkins, J J Davis and J Murphy.

Franklinton Township—C Perry, J A Henley, Dr B T Green, W H Mitchell, A C Perry, Henry C Kearney, J S Joyner and Capt A S Perry.

Freeman's Township—B J King, W J Freeman, J J Freeman, Richard Holden, Jr. and J K Purefoy.

Harris Township—A J P Harris, J R Jeffreys, Dr E A Crudup, W R Young and D W Spivey.

Cypress Creek Township—W Harris, B Gay, Col W H Yarborough, T W Davis, R Stallings and H J Barnes.

Dunn's Township—W S Harris, F P Pearce, A D Crudup, Robert Griffin and J Griffin, Jr.

On motion it was ordered that a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be furnished the Daily SENTINEL, with a request that they be published.

In response to loud calls, the meeting was addressed by W. S. Harris, C. M. Cooke and D. W. Spivey, Esqrs. They all gave the newly fledged Radical, Gen. Philemon B Hawkins, the prospective candidate of that party for Senatorial honors, some hard licks.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

LOUISBURG, July 3rd, 1869.

MR EDITOR:—On the night of the 30th of June, the Sheriff of this county arrested, under a capias from Franklin Superior Court, Thomas McGiffin, who sports several aliases. McG. has made himself notorious for his many villanies in several counties of this State, as well as Virginia. He came here soon after the close of hostilities with a man who called himself Dr. Wm. Lewis. Lewis established himself as a teacher of freedmen in that part of the county which lies near Nash, Warren and Halifax. McGiffin had no visible means of support. They both made themselves offensive to both the white and black, and rendered themselves notorious by violating the law in every conceivable manner. I have been informed by the Sheriff that he has had capiases for one or both of their arrest from Halifax, Nash, Warren, Northampton, Guilford and other counties. They have been before arrested in this county but broke jail.

It is said that Lewis was sentenced to the Virginia Penitentiary last winter, but that Wells, the acting Governor, and present Radical candidate for that position, pardoned him. May it not reasonably be expected that he will next turn up as a reconstructed Legislator or Judge? Such things have happened.

Would it not be well to pass them around, that the public may be guarded against the one that is still at large?

HARLEY.

PETRIFIED FORESTS IN EGYPT.—The formation of what is usually termed a petrifaction, and some few other similar subtile operations of nature, have never been completely fathomed and satisfactorily accounted for, by either the practical man or the theorist. There exists in the vicinity of Cairo, although but little known to European visitors, and still less to the Arabs in general, a petrified forest, which presents features of great attraction to the geologist and antiquary. The term "petrified forest" may perhaps seem a misnomer, when it is stated that there are neither trees nor leaves. The fragments, to all appearance, are stones, only outwardly resembling wood, and in myriads of pieces are scattered, half buried in the sand like "the oceans witness." One of the most remarkable circumstances is that the most rigid scrutiny fails to detect the least vestige of arable land, the smallest oasis, which could have afforded an origin to these mutilated relics of timber. Occasionally a trunk is found riven in two, as if split by the heat. The largest of these specimens measure ten feet in length, and has a diameter of twelve inches. One would naturally expect that the species or description of timber to which these petrifactions belonged, would be identical with that met at present in the country. The reverse is the fact. The oak, the beech, the chesnut, and others, are distinctly recognized, but scarcely a single specimen can be discovered of the palm, the sycamore or the fig tree. The perforations produced by the passage of insects through the bark are clearly visible, and a gummy secretion has been found in some of the holes made in this manner. It would be idle to attempt at present to offer an explanation of this curious phenomenon, but it is to be hoped that geologists will ultimately solve the problem.

A lady shut up in a carriage on an English railway, had to fight fire with cushions and mats for a long distance before the train reached a station and she was rescued.

The Rev. Mr. Murphy, of Boston, announces "that he is not afraid to enter the dens of any theological lions that ever howled."

TUESDAY, JULY 6, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The attention of those interested is directed to the advertisement of the Committee of the Central Agricultural Society, at Henderson.

See the advertisement of W. C. Stronach & Co., who are Agents for the Great Tea and Coffee Company. Get your wife some of that nice English breakfast tea, but mind about the gun-powder tea, or your wife may blow you up between supper and bed time. Perhaps, it would be better to get old Government Java Coffee, anyhow; that is mild and soothing to the mind and body.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—We are requested to announce that the Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, will preach in the Catholic Church, in this city on the 11th inst., at half-past 10 o'clock, A. M.

The citizens are respectfully invited to attend.

NEW CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.—The Stockholders of the New Cemetery Association are requested to meet at the store of W. H. Jones & Co., to-morrow, the 7th inst., at half past 5 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance is earnestly requested, as business of much importance will come before the meeting.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—The Committee appointed to make arrangements for the anniversary celebration of Oak City Council F. of T., are requested to meet at the Council Hall on Thursday night at 8½ o'clock. The Committee consists of Joseph Watson, James A. Collins, T. T. Fentress, Theo. N. Ramsay, M. J. Broughton, and Theo. H. Hill.

SKETCHES.—We give to-day No. 15, and the last, of the series of Pen and Ink Sketches of the University. These sketches have been read with pleasure and interest by many, as they have recalled facts and incidents connected with the history of the University and those connected with it in its days of usefulness and prosperity.

The author has promised us a sketch of the life and labors of Charles Harris, first Professor of Mathematics in the University, which may be followed by notices of deceased distinguished Alumni; and as the author is fully capable of making such notices interesting, we have no doubt the great body of the Alumni throughout the country, as well as others, will read them with pleasure.

DEWITT'S SIX PENNY MUSIC.—We have received four pieces of DeWitt's six-penny series of popular songs for voice and piano —Pretty Polly, by Robert Coote; Fisher man's Daughter, by Sambagnall; Lover's letter-box, by W. T. Wrightman, and, I'll tell your Wife, by Frank W. Egerton.—They are all gotten up in very pretty style, and the price is so low that every one can obtain an extensive range of pleasing and popular songs at a trifling outlay of money. Address, R. M. DeWitt, 13 Franklin St., New York.

THE RADICAL NOMINEE.—We learn from a private source, that the Radical Convention, which met in Louisburg, yesterday, succeeded in nominating P. B. Hawkins, Esq., who has gone over, "horse, foot and dragoons," to the Rads, as candidate for the vacant Senatorship. Some of the Wake delegates are reported to have gotten into pretty warm water with their Radical brethren of Franklin, as it is said that one, at least, availed himself of the length and speed of his shanks to bring his carcass out of the range of three pistols that were brought to bear on him at once.

SUCCESSFUL.—When we saw Holden, the original North Carolina secessionist, and Judge Rodman, who used to sentence Confederate deserters to be shot because they did not stand firm and shoot the Yankees, we could not help thinking, as they sat elevated just above the sea of African wool stretched out before them in Tucker Hall, that they, at least, were succeeding gloriously in making secession "dilorous."

BISHOP ATKINSON'S APPOINTMENTS FOR THE SUMMER VISITATION, 1869.—We are requested by Bishop Atkinson to publish the following appointments:

THE FARM JOURNAL, published at Chambersburg, Penn., devotes much attention to stock raising and the improvement of breeds, and also the insect pests of crops and fruit trees, and the best methods for their eradication. The number for the current month is on our table. The subscription price $1.50 per year.

THE FIRE WORKS.—We had almost forgotten to touch off the fire-works of the celebration, and so did the celebrators.—The men who hold the fat offices that the negroes gave them must have been a little stingy in their contributions, for the fire-works demonstration was of the most scanty pattern. A few bunches of pop-crackers and a dozen or so of fizzing sky-rockets, constituted the whole display.

It was too bad. Here are some hundreds of white office-holders drawing heavy salaries from the offices which the negroes have given them, inviting their colored friends up to Raleigh to celebrate a day that kept them in slavery fifty years longer than they would have been kept but for it, and then not giving a cent to get up a barbecue or pot of collards, and even refusing to throw in anything to get up a fire works demonstration. All this after refusing to march with their colored brethren, is too bad, especially when we consider that they are indebted to negro votes for all the good things—offices and money—which they enjoy.

A SIGHT it was indeed, to behold, on yesterday, in Tucker Hall, a northern negro reading the North Carolina (Mecklenburg) Declaration of Independence. But, to do the man justice, it must be said, he beat Josh Andrews all hollow. Josh read very badly indeed—just like he had his mouth full of mush, and so very indistinct it was that he could not be heard a few feet from the stage.

NOT SHOT.—The rumor that a colored woman was shot by a colored policeman, in the city, yesterday, turns out to be an error. The facts in regard to the shooting are these: a negro man got drunk and went into the kitchen of a private residence; the lady of the house sent for the policeman to take him off; he resisted and another negro came up to interfere, when the policeman fired his pistol at the ground to frighten him. This succeeded and the drunken chap was taken care of till this morning, when the Mayor fined him for misbehavior and turned him loose.

REV. T. M. JONES.—We noticed yesterday, that the connection of this gentleman as President of Kittrell's Springs Female College has been severed by his resignation. We learn that Mr. Jones is making arrangements to commence again at some point in the State, of which his friends and the public will be notified in due time.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met at the usual hour; Justice Settle absent.

The following cases were argued:

Martin ex. McMillan, from Alleghany County. Gov. Bragg for Plaintiff. F. H. Busbee for Defendant.

State ex. Jarvis, from Burke County.—Attorney General for State. Furches for Defendant.

State ex. Horton, from Watauga County. Attorney General for State. No counsel for Defendant.

State ex. Wiseman, from McDowell County. Attorney General for State. No counsel for Defendant.

MASONIC BAZAR IN CHARLOTTE.—To-morrow evening, 7th., the Grand Masonic Bazar opens in Charlotte, and will continue the two succeeding evenings.

President Johnston, of the Charlotte and Columbia, and President Smith, of the N. C. Railroads, will pass visitors to Charlotte on the occasion and return for one fare.

It will be a grand affair, something far ahead of anything of the kind ever attempted in this State before. The chief citizens of Charlotte and vicinity, and especially the ladies, have taken hold of the matter and determined to make it a grand success. Hear what one of the accomplished managers of the Bazar says in regard to it:

Who wants to know the Masons' Secret?—Let all who do, procure one of the Excursion tickets issued by President Smith, and proceed to Charlotte so as to be in time for the grand Masonic Bazar to be held on the nights of the 7th, 8th and 9th of July. They may rest assured that not only will they be admitted into the Lodge of fun and taught the great secret of how to enjoy oneself, but they will also receive Degrees of happiness which will suit the taste of all sorts and conditions of men and women. No pains will be spared to make the occasion worthy the high dignity of the Masonic Fraternity, and it will be conducted in a style never before attempted in this State.

The Bazar will be "a big thing on ice," at least, as it will be held out of doors it will have plenty of coolness. Every delicacy that can please the palate, will be served up by the prettiest of pretty waiter girls in Charlotte or any other city; elegant articles in the way of fancy work will be displayed; music of the best kind, will be provided, and the gay scene will be delightfully illuminated by calcium lights and Chinese lanterns.

To sum up all the charms of the occasion, we will merely mention pretty women, splendid eating, fine music, elegant entertainments and the most courteous and kindly attention to guests, on the part of all connected with the Bazar. The latter pledge themselves, on the Square, that they will do their Level best to Compass under the Arch of their entertainment, such an amount of fun, frolic and innocent amusement, as will be sure to please the public and make the Bazar one of the most agreeable events of the day. In view of this fact and the excellent object for which the Bazar is undertaken, we say to one and all,

"IF YOU, WISH TO HAVE A GOOD TIME, COME TO CHARLOTTE!"

PERSONAL.—We learn that the Hon. E. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Campany's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co-operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, General Agent.

STATE NEWS.

GOVERNMENT SALE.—On Friday morning Mr. Stacy Van Amringe, Auctioner, sold by public auction ten tons of government iron and the hull of a blockade runner, also, belonging to the United States. The total sale amounted to $190.00—from $9.00 per ton—hull, $100. The articles were at Myrtle Grove Beach below the city.—Wil. Star.

CAPTURED.—Cato Potts and John Black, two negroes, were captured near Lumberton last Thursday, having in their possession the two horses stolen from J. C. Privett, of Goldsborough. Black was sent to the Fayetteville jail, whence he escaped some time since, and Potts was lodged in the jail at Goldsborough.

WATERMELONS have made their appearance in Wilmington, and were sold at $1.50 each.

HARD ON LARKINS.—The Post says Larkins, who wants to be Representative from New Hanover, was not an officer in the 8th New York artillery, as he claims to have been; nor did he make any Republican speeches in Pennsylvania, last campaign, as he reports he did. The Post seems to have rather cornered the Captain. Larkins claims to have been in several other places which the Post offers him a hundred dollars each to prove true.

REPORTED KILLING.—From passengers by yesterday evening's train we learn that a few nights ago, a young man named Stephen Hines, was killed in Lenoir county, bridle in hand, in the very act of stealing a horse. None of the particulars have transpired.—New. Journal of Commerce.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—A correspondent at Dallas, Gaston County, sends us an account of the sudden death of a man in that village from drinking too much whiskey.—His name is given as C. M. H. Myers, a German, formerly in the employ of Commodore Wilkes. He commenced drinking on Thursday, the 17th of June, and died on Saturday the 19th—the Doctor declaring that his death was caused by the poison which was in the Whiskey he drank.

MYERS was a stranger in that part of the State. He is represented as a man of pretty good education.—Char. Democrat.

CHURCH BURNT.—We learn that a Church, which was being erected 9 miles west of Dallas for the use of those in that section who belong to the Northern Methodist Church, was burnt on the night of the 24th ult.—Char. Democrat.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continued, until taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

**

The Daily Sentinel.

THE DAY IS DONE.

The day is done and the darkness
Falls from the wing of night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.

I see the lights of the village
Gleam through the rain and the mist,
And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me,
That my soul cannot resist.

A feeling of sadness and longing,
That is not akin to pain,
And resembles sorrow only,
As the mist resembles the rain.

Come read to me some poem,
Some simple and heartfelt lay,
That shall soothe this restless feeling,
And banish the thoughts of day.

Not from the grand old masters,
Not from the bards sublime,
Whose distant footsteps echo
Through the corridors of time.

For like the strains of martial music
Their mighty thoughts suggest
Life's endless toil and endeavor,
And to-night I long for rest.

Read from some humbler poet,
Whose songs gush from his heart
As showers from the clouds of summer,
Or tears from the eyelids start.

Who through long days of labor,
And nights devoid of ease,
Still heard in his soul of music,
Of wondrous melodies.

Such songs have power to quiet
The restless pulse of care,
And come like the benedict on
That follows after prayer.

Then read from th treasured volume
The poem of thy choice,
And lem to the rhyme of the poet
The beauty of thy voice.

And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day
Shall fold their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed supervisors of the above Company, do certify that we neither own any stock or tickets, nor can we, and we will here state that the drawing will be conducted fairly for all who hold tickets, whether present or not at the drawing. We will publish a full list of all numbers drawing prizes, which will be sent to any one desiring it.

L. C. LATHAM,
Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or forms they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.
